OBJECTIVES

Provision of KT & Commercialization Support Services by the central KTO experts to eligible Beneficiaries implementing RDI projects or activities which are:

- RDI projects funded by RIF's Calls of Proposals from 1/7/2019 onwards and not eligible under the Fast-Track or Direct Entry Call of Proposals for CKTO Services.
- RDI projects or activities funded by other public or private resources, including own/internal funding.

The Services of the CKTO are only available to entities and natural persons that are legally established and are active in territories under the control of the Republic of Cyprus.

In the event one or more foreign entities is an owner of any part of a Bundle submitted for CKTO services and thus ineligible to receive services, the foreign entities must exclusively license or assign all their rights to a Cypriot entity who is an eligible Beneficiary and receive the services or formally opt out in writing and provide written permission for the other Beneficiaries to receive Services.

Beneficiaries of externally funded RDI projects must have utilized and exhausted all available knowledge transfer and/or commercialization support available from the funding agency before submitting an application for services from the CKTO.

The Services will enhance the impact of the investment on the local economy and society.

Services provided under this call can include IP ownership assessment, IPR scope analysis, IP protection strategy development and IP protection funding through an IP Voucher, assessment of commercial prospects, technology marketing and support in negotiating commercialization agreements, as described in more detail in the Framework of Operations of the Central Office of Knowledge Transfer and its Annexes/Appendices.

CKTO SERVICE OPEN CALL BENEFICIARIES

The Services of the CKTO are only available to entities and natural persons that are legally established and are active in territories under the control of the Republic of Cyprus.

The CKTO Service Beneficiaries are all owners of any right(s) in the asset(s) unless an owner opts out in writing and provides written permission for the other Beneficiaries to receive Services. Only Intellectual Asset Bundles may be considered which are centred around assets that have resulted from RDI Projects eligible under this Call.

A member of the Consortium implementing that Project and who is an owner of at least part of the right(s) in the subject intellectual asset(s) must be the entity or natural person submitting an application under this call.

SERVICE DELIVERY

The provision of CKTO Services begins by applying for, and scheduling an INITIAL ENGAGEMENT meeting between the CKTO and the duly authorized legal representative of a party that has any ownership right(s) in the subject intellectual asset(s). Only one party submits the application on behalf of all the parties.

Upon completion of the Initial Engagement, a Service Delivery Plan will be prepared by the CKTO which will be made up of one or more of the Services of the CKTO, as described in the Framework of Operations of the Central Office of Knowledge Transfer and its Annexes/Appendices. This Service Delivery Plan will be transmitted to all owners of any rights in the intellectual assets which are the subject of the Initial Engagement.

SPECIFIC CONDITIONS

Within the framework of the present Call, the following specific conditions apply:

- The person submitting the application is a legal representative of a member of the Consortium (if any) implementing RDI Project (if any) and that member is an owner of at least part of the right in the intellectual assets which are the focus of the Services to be provided.
- The duly authorized representative for purposes of intellectual asset and intellectual property management of all owners of any right(s) in the asset(s) has been informed of and approved the content of the application. Where an owner is an individual, they may be their own legal representative.
- The RIF may request additional documents at any stage of the application.

- The CKTO expert may request additional documents at any stage of the Service delivery process.
- Private sector entities must ensure that at the submission of the application the Certificate issued by an Independent Auditor certifying that the Undertaking is not in Difficulty is valid and in effect on the IRIS Portal. In the event that an already uploaded Certificate it is not valid, an updated / valid Certificate must be uploaded.
- The Acceptance of the Initial Engagement is mandatory once the Application for CKTO Services is submitted. Development of, and acceptance of, a Service Delivery Plan and the utilization of the CKTO services is optional.

SUBMISSION

Submission of Applications is done through the IRIS Online Services Portal (<https://iris.research.org.cy>) of the Research and Innovation Foundation.

It is noted that all parties who are owners of any right(s) in the subject asset(s) must be registered on the IRIS Portal, including any natural persons.

If a Member of the Consortium is a Small and Medium Enterprise (SME)

- ⬡ Declaration pursuant to Article 28 of GBER 651/2014 "Innovation Aid for SMEs"

SELECTION

Evaluation process

For the evaluation of the Applications, an internal evaluation process will be followed by the RIF on a first-in-first-served order and in accordance with the requirements of the Call. During the internal evaluation of the proposal, the RIF may request additional information.

Evaluation Criteria

A. Evaluation Criteria for RDI projects funded by RIF's Calls of Proposals from 1/7/2019 onwards and not eligible under the Fast-Track or Direct Entry Call of Proposals for CKTO Services:

1. Completeness of the Application, including any appendices.
2. For large and medium size projects, at least an Interim Report and has been assessed by an external evaluator with score «A» or «B» or «C» or by RIF internal assessment with at least «satisfactory» and for small size projects, the final report has been submitted and has been assessed by the RIF as at least «satisfactory». In cases of multiple Interim Reports, the most recent one will be taken into consideration. In cases where the final evaluation of the project has taken place the final evaluation score will be taken into consideration.
3. A credible commercialization plan as evidenced by the Business Model Canvas for the Intellectual Asset Bundles centred around assets that have resulted from RDI Projects eligible under this Call.

B. Evaluation Criteria for RDI projects or activities funded by other public or private resources, including own/internal funding:

1. Completeness of the Application, including any appendices.
2. Understandability: Ability of a person without professional or specialized knowledge in the particular subject matter of the intellectual asset(s) to understand the Application, including any appendices.
3. Technical & Commercial Merit:
 - a. FOR PROPOSALS THAT HAVE BEEN SUBMITTED TO RIF'S CALL OF PROPOSALS FROM 1/7/2019 ONWARDS BUT WERE NOT FUNDED, FOR THE DEVELOPMENT OF THE INTELLECTUAL ASSETS TO BE EVALUATED:
 - I. The proposal should have received an Evaluation Score of 12 or above but was not funded because of insufficient budget.
 - II. Proof that the intellectual asset(s) to be evaluated is the result of the work proposed as part of the proposal submitted to the RIF.
 - b. FOR ENTERPRISES THAT HAVE RECEIVED A CERTIFICATE OF INNOVATIVE ENTERPRISE

https://www.dmrid.gov.cy/dmrid/research.nsf/euprogramms_el/euprogramms_el?OpenDocument

- I. The Enterprise holds a valid Certificate of Innovative Enterprises issued by the Deputy Ministry of Research Innovation & Digital Policy of the Republic of Cyprus.

c. OR IF THAT IS NOT THE CASE:

- I. The intellectual assets to be evaluated do not violate a law of nature or are otherwise scientifically impossible.
- II. The commercialization plan/Business Model Canvas has a target to have a license no later than 5 years from the date of submission and/or a product or service offered to the public (consumers and/or businesses) for sale in no less than 10 years that is not obviously impossible to happen.

Selection

The applications are selected in order of priority of submission to the RIF (i.e., they are not subject to competitive procedures) provided that they have been deemed eligible on the basis of the internal evaluation for the provision of CKTO, as provided for in the Framework of Operations of the Central Office of Knowledge Transfer and its Annexes/Appendices.

Incomplete applications (in terms of supporting documents, completion of relevant fields, etc) or applications with poor justification will be rejected. Applicants can, and are encouraged to resubmit the proposal. A request for redress may be submitted only if it pertains to the erroneous rejection of an application during internal evaluation after resubmittals. The Redress Committee shall only examine the correctness of the application's rejection during the internal evaluation.
